Eunice Shang-Simpson is a member of the Ghana Bar, a solicitor-advocate qualified to practice in England and Wales, and an international arbitrator. She is presently a Lecturer Practitioner in Law at Canterbury Christ Church University, Kent, UK.

She is an Accredited Civil & Commercial Mediator, having trained with the ADR Group in 2020.

Eunice is a former Specialist Crown Prosecutor with extensive experience in complex cross-border criminal prosecutions and mutual legal assistance. She was a seconded national expert (SNE) to the UK Desk at Eurojust in the Hague and dealt with several successful cross-border prosecutions.   As an SNE, her role was to represent the interests of the UK in negotiations with EU countries in respect of matters pertaining to Justice and Home Affairs.

"I regularly chaired co-ordination meetings held at Eurojust comprising Prosecutors and Law Enforcement officials from various EU countries. I was responsible for steering parties towards a successful conclusion on how best to tackle cross-border crimes affecting all parties, usually culminating in the setting up of a Joint Investigation Team (JIT) comprising some or all of the countries at the table, which has been valuable experience for my training and practice as a mediator".

Eunice is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a frequent arbitrator at the annual Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot in Vienna.   She is a Member of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) Africa Commission representing Ghana and was recently appointed as a Member to the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR.

Eunice is also the Law Society Council Member for the Croydon and North Kent Constituency, a Member of the Equality Diversity and Inclusion Committee (EDIC), a Trustee of the Law Society Charity and Chair of the International Committee of the Law Society of England & Wales. She is also currently a PhD Researcher, focussing on international trade & investment negotiations and investor-state dispute resolution.
